

2nd Call for papers

www.emfa2017.eu

The 6th European Meeting on Forensic Archaeology (EMFA 2017) will take place from August 18-19, 2017 in Rome (Italy), organized by the American University of Rome in the beautiful venue of NH Collection Vittorio Veneto (Corso d'Italia, 1 - 00198, Rome, Italy) in Villa Borghese, one of the most famous and beautiful landscape gardens of Rome.

The forensic meeting will be focused on:

Archaeology;
Anthropology;
GIS;
Geophysics;
Human taphonomy;
Soil;
Art/antiquities crimes;
Forensic case studies;
Etc.

Additionally, a workshop on Art and Antiquities Crimes and an on-site visit to the Scientific Investigations Carabinieri Group will be offered during EMFA 2017.

Call for papers

You and your colleagues are also kindly invited to give an oral presentation and/or present a poster on the above forensic archaeological topics during the EMFA 2017.

The abstract submission of both oral papers and poster presentations will be via email to p.barone@aur.edu, as soon as possible and not later than June 2nd, 2017.

Information and Registration

The EMFA 2017 begins on Friday, August 18th, at 09:00am and ends on Saturday, August 19th, at 4:00pm.

A 150 Euros fee is requested to cover conference costs, including workshops, coffee breaks, and lunch.

A social dinner on Friday 18th evening will be optional and an additional fee of 30 Euros for this dinner will be requested at the registration desk in Rome.

To register, please send an email to:

Stefania Costelli: emfa2017@regint.it or visit the website: www.emfa2017.eu

Important Dates:

Registration open	December, 1st 2016
Abstract Submission open (please specify oral and/or poster)	December, 1st 2016
Abstract Submission closed (please specify oral and/or poster)	June, 2nd 2017

For additional information: www.emfa2017.eu

Pier Matteo Barone: p.barone@aur.edu; Mike Groen: m.groen@nfi.minvenj.nl